Dear all

You will be pleased to hear, having received a number of messages from us this week, that today's letter is lovely and short! I know that there will be tricky times ahead, but for now, we have settled in to our new routines, with teaching and learning progressing fantastically.

Current circumstances mean that we cannot send reading books home as often as we would like. If you find that your child would like to read more at home, there is an excellent range of Ebooks available for children in years R to 2 using this link: https://www.oxfordowl.co.uk/forhome/find-a-book/library-page

Thank you for sending your children to school today in their lovely mufti-outfits. You will know that we have 2 more of these occasions in the 3 weeks before the end of term. This seems like a lot, but in current circumstances, it is one of the few ways that we have of raising funds. On Friday 16th, we are asking children and families to support the One Can Trust by wearing mufti and bringing in an item from the list shown below.

As ever, my very best wishes to you and your families for a happy weekend.

Clare Pankhania
